Re: Emerald Attendance Treat

In our school we celebrate attendance by allowing the Learning Zone with the highest attendance data at the end of a term to choose a "treat". We believe it is unfair to reward or celebrate the attendance of individual children as this could be unfair or discriminatory. In addition, no one can help becoming ill and we would rather parents keep their children off school when they are unwell in order to protect the health and well-being of our other children and staff team.

Mr Storey (Assistant Head Teacher) takes the lead on attendance across the school and analyses our data on a weekly, half termly, termly and annual basis. At the end of each term he announces which Learning Zone has achieved the highest attendance during whole school assembly.

I am writing to let you know that the Emerald Learning Zone had the highest attendance for the Autumn Term. They were asked to decide on a treat for their achievement and have decided to hold a non-uniform / pizza afternoon on Tuesday 24th January 2023.

Children can attend school in non-uniform for the whole day and will be treated to pizzas, hot chocolate and marshmallows whilst watching a film during the afternoon. The children can bring in blankets / teddies to snuggle up with as long as they fit in a bag which can be hung on their peg.

Please speak to Mrs Green if you have any queries.

Yours sincerely

Mrs A Green
